

▶ Perdomo Habano Now Available with Connecticut Wrapper

Tabacalera Perdomo has extended its Perdomo Habano line of large ring gauge premium cigars with the Perdomo Habano Connecticut, which joins the existing Corojo and Maduro versions.

The Connecticut shade wrappers add “smooth, creamy flavors which allow the filler blend to show its rich character,” explains company founder and president Nick Perdomo. The blend for all Perdomo Habano lines combines Cuban-seed tobaccos from all three of Nicaragua’s growing regions—full-flavored Estelí leaf, aromatic Condega leaf, and naturally sweet Jalapa leaf.

These cigars are available in Robusto (5 x 52), Toro (5½ x 54), Torpedo (6½ x 54), Gordo (6 x 60), and Presidente (7 x 56), range in cost from $5 to $7, and are presented in hand-stained Spanish cedar boxes of 20.
